Participation opportunities

The Budapest International Choral Celebration offers you a wide range of participation opportunities:

If you wish to take part at the festival, give concerts, sing along with other choirs, please browse the selection of Festival Activities.

If you prefer to take part at the choir competition, chose from our Competition Categories. The competition will run on two levels: the International Choir Competition is open to all the choirs, while the Grand Prix is announced for choirs that can present results from previous international competitions.

Your choir may attend both events but you are free to participate only in the festival or only in the competition.

All Grand Prix Choirs will be admitted by the artistic committee. In case a choir is not happy with the decision of the artistic committee whether they meet or do not meet the criteria, or cannot decide in which competition they should take part, the choirs may participate in a qualification round prior to the actual competitions. They have the opportunity of being evaluated by a competent jury and thereby receiving information as to which competition is the best one in which the choir can present its current level of artistic achievement.

This qualification round is placed before the competitions, but is not a part of the competition. The choirs sing the same program as in the competition. The jury’s evaluation is final; diplomas are not presented.

Festival Participation

International Festival Choir (IFC)

The International Festival Choir (IFC) is a great opportunity for singers from all over the world to sing together in a concert in one of the most prestigious concert hall in Budapest. Participants will receive the choral music to prepare in advance of the festival. They will have rehearsals together at the venue prior to the concert. Choirs may choose to participate solely in the International Festival Choir. Competing choirs may also participate in the IFC. Participation in the International Festival Choir is open for individual singers as well as choirs.

Competitive Participation

The Laurea Mundi International Open Competition (OC)

Advice on your category and program choice

Category selections

This competition is open to any non-professional choir from all around the world, regardless of their present artistic level of achievement, and their international experience. This competition offers excellent opportunity for choirs to gain experience and confidence from international performances. The winner of each category and choirs with a score above 23,00 points will qualify to perform in the Choral Grand Prix.

Choirs may participate in only one of the categories 1-9. Categories 10, 11 and 12 can be chosen additionally or separately. Mixed Choirs may register their female voices in category OC4 or OC7 and/or their male voices in category OC5 or OC7.

Qualification for the Grand Prix

Qualified Choirs of Laurea Mundi International Open Competition:

- OC1 participate in the GP1 Children's Choirs.
- OC2 and OC3 participate in the GP2 Youth Choirs.
- OC4 participate in the GP3 Female Choirs.
- OC5 participate in the GP4 Male Choirs.
- OC6 participate in the GP5 Mixed Choirs.
- OC7 participate in the GP3 Female Choirs or GP4 Male Choirs, according the type of choir.
- OC8 participate in the GP5 Mixed Choirs.
- OC9 participate in the GP6 Musica Sacra.
- OC10 & OC11 participate in the GP7 Pop / Jazz / Gospel / Spiritual / Modern
- OC12 participate in the GP8 Folklore.

Age restrictions

In categories with age restrictions, a limited number of singers may diverge from what is required, up to a certain age. Consult us with your specific circumstances.

Multiple participation

For organisational reasons, individual choir members may participate in smaller ensembles formed out of their primary choir but may NOT sing in more than one primary choir.

Program selection

Please consider the structure of the program carefully. Aim to find a balance of dramaturgy, diversity of musical character, and pleasing order of pieces. We advise selecting music which best reflects the choir's knowledge and national/cultural choral traditions that is appropriate to the age group and abilities of the singers.

When a choir takes part in several categories, songs may not be repeated. Music for each category must be different. Choirs qualifying from the Open Competition to the Grand Prix Competition may sing the same three (3) pieces performed in the Open Competition, with one additional piece.

inchoral Evaluation System

“The new evaluation shall preserve all the advantages of the well-known evaluation concept that I worked out while introducing new criteria to provide a more efficient assistance to choirs’ learning with a more detailed and perspicuous evaluation system. Beside other aspects the jury will give choirs a feedback about the program dramaturgy, the selection, difficulty etc. In evaluating a choir, taking all the criteria into account, we aim at finding a most desirable proportion of various elements in order to provide a realistic feedback on the choirs’ performance.”

Gábor Hollerung

- 1) Choir’s performances are evaluated by the following criteria:
 - A) Intonation
 - B) Interpretation (style, fidelity to the score, incorporated performance traditions etc.)
 - C) Program structure
 - 1) Difficulty of the compositions (i.e.: the chosen compositions match the choir’s abilities, achievement and traditions)
 - 2) Program dramaturgy (diversity of musical characters, representation of various musical periods, order of compositions, overall rhythm of the program)
 - D) General impression (Impact)
 - 1) Sound quality of the choir (quality of voices)
 - 2) Artistic impression

Diplomas and Awards according to the inchoral Evaluation System

Diplomas

According to the score, Bronze, Silver, and Golden Diplomas will be awarded.

If the choir does not achieve a diploma, the choir will receive a Certificate of Participation.

Laurea Mundi Grand Prix Competition (GP)

Advice on your category and program choice

Category selections

All Grand Prix Choirs will be admitted by the artistic committee. The Grand Prix series offers an opportunity for the world's top choirs to present themselves. It is designed for choirs of a high artistic level which have already achieved extraordinary results at prestigious international choir competitions or festivals.

Participation is open for all non-professional choirs which meet at least one of the following criteria:

- Grand Prix winners, Prize winners (1st, 2nd, 3rd Prizes) or category winners or winners of a Golden Diploma with more than 23,00 points from any comparable choir competition (A copy of the certificate must be submitted with registration).
- Choirs which have qualified on-site at the Laurea Mundi International Open Competition.
- Choirs also have the possibility to qualify during the event by taking part at a Qualifying performance.
- Choirs delegated by their country, ministry, choral associations, etc.

Qualifying Performance

Choirs have the opportunity to perform their program to a panel of jurors prior to the competition. The Jury decides if the choir's achievement is fit for Open Competition or Grand Prix Competition.

Qualification

Choirs may perform in those categories in which they have received qualifications or have won prizes at previous competitions. If a choir has qualified in categories not represented at this competition, it may participate in categories 1-5 according to the type of choir.

Choirs may participate in only one of the categories 1 to 5. Categories 6, 7 and 8 can be chosen additionally or individually. If a choir qualified as a children's choir, but members of the choir exceed the age limit in the meantime, they can participate in the youth choir category.

Age restriction

In categories with age restrictions, a limited number of singers may diverge from what is required, up to a certain age. Consult us with your specific circumstances.

Multiple participation

For organizational reasons, individual choir members may participate in smaller ensembles formed out of their primary choir but may NOT sing in more than one primary choir. Female and male voices of a mixed choir have the opportunity to take part in the category for female and male voices as well.

Program selection

Please consider the structure of the program carefully. Aim to find a balance of dramaturgy, diversity of musical character, and pleasing order of pieces. We advise selecting music which best reflects the choir's knowledge and national/cultural choral traditions that is appropriate to the age group and abilities of the singers.

When a choir takes part in several categories, songs may not be repeated. Music for each category must be different. Choirs qualifying from the Open Competition to the Grand Prix Competition may sing the same 3 pieces performed in the Open Competition, with two additional pieces.

Awards according to the inchoral Grand Prix Evaluation System

The Laurea Mundi Grand Prix renews antic traditions, where the best of the best earns the crown of Laurea. The participating choirs and ensembles are well experienced and high decorated in international choir competitions. Based on our expertise we will give feedback and evaluate the choirs and ensembles after the criteria of an own InChoral Grand Prix Evaluation System as described below. The choirs will also get a written statement.

The Jury evaluates the program by the following criteria:

- I. Program design and dramaturgy
- II. Technical standards and sound quality
- III. Overall artistic impression

No points will be given. The jury evaluates each criteria by the following evaluation:

- Perfect
- Very good
- Good

In addition, the choirs receive a written brief summary of the opinion and impression of the jury.

The choral conductors will have the chance for a personal consultation with jury after the competition.

The jury may grant the following awards:

- The Grand Prix Champion – Laureatus is the choir, with the best result with at least more than 50% of perfect evaluations.
- Laurea summa cum laude: choirs with a majority of perfect and very good level of performance
- Laurea cum laude goes to all other choirs

All rights granted to the organiser hereunder may be exploited by the organiser in perpetuity without any limitation as to time, territory and/or manner of exploitation free of any rights of third parties. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, this includes in particular the following exclusive rights in the Recordings which can also be transferred by the organiser to a third party at the organiser's discretion: the organiser shall be exclusively entitled to reproduce the Recordings wholly or partly by way of producing vinyl discs, music cassettes, compact discs, DATs, Mini Discs, Digital Compact Cassettes or other sound carriers and by producing video cassettes, picture discs, compact disc videos, DVDs or other audio-visual carriers or other data carriers or by means of other technical devices and to sell or otherwise distribute these reproductions by retail, wholesale or other distribution channels such as clubs, mail order or TV-response. This also includes the right to exploit the Recordings in the context of online and especially internet applications of any kind and of any system, regardless of the way of transmission and business model, and to use, upload and distribute these Recordings in data bases, networks (e.g. internet and all its services) or anything similar of any kind and especially to disseminate and transmit these Recordings to users of databases / networks via cable or other ways of transmission for the purpose of perception and/ or reproduction and/ or distribution against payment or free of charge. This also includes the right to publicly perform or broadcast the Recordings by private or public broadcast stations, including digital radio services, via cable, satellite or other technical transmission services either against payment or free of charge (including the right to collect in the organiser's own name broadcast fees accruing in connection with the public performance or broadcast of the Recordings). The organiser's rights also include the right to edit and/or alter the Recordings (e.g. by producing mixes or remixes), to couple the Recordings with other recordings (e.g. with recordings of other artists) and the right to release and sell the Recordings on so-called "special product" audio- or audio-visual carriers. Furthermore, the organiser shall be entitled to grant synchronisation rights in the Recordings for movies, videos, TV and/or movie commercials, image films etc., to translate them into other languages, to use them for multimedia purposes of any kind or to rearrange them in any other way (e.g. to create remixes or do sampling). This also includes the exclusive right to use the Recordings in games / PC games as well as other and also interactive multimedia productions (incl. so called "websites") for goods, services and advertising purposes of any kind.

Finally, this includes the non-exclusive right to use the choir's /artist's name as well as images of the choir / artist in the context of the exploitation and the advertising and promotion measures mentioned above. The organiser does not pay any money to the ARTIST for the exclusive grant of rights mentioned above. The ARTIST accepts explicitly that the positive promotion effect resulting from an exploitation of the Recordings by the organiser represents an adequate return service for this transfer of rights. In case of a commercial release of the Recordings on CD, the parties will negotiate separately in good faith about an adequate royalty to be payable to Artist according to standard business practice.

Changes

The organizer reserves the right to make changes and amendments to the existing information material and/or the announcement in the event of unforeseen technical, organisational or artistic circumstances or act(s) of God. The organiser also reserves the right to make changes to the program contents and schedule.
