A short performance note

The lyrics of O Padre nostro come from Dante Alighieri's The Divine Comedy. This is a yearning prayer spoken by souls staying in the Purgatory. Music shows the distance and contrast between lowly spirits longing for God and the Heaven full of His Glory where mighty and joyful "Hosanna" echoes constantly.

The text + English Translation

O Padre nostro, che ne' cieli stai, non circunscritto, ma per più amore
ch' ai primi effetti di là sù tu hai, Laudato sia 'l tuonome e 'l tuo valore da ogne creatura, com'è degno di render grazie al tuo dolce vapore.
Vegna ver' noi la pace del tuo regno, ché noi ad essa non potem da noi,
s' ella non vien, con tutto nostro ingegno.
Come del suo voler li angeli tuoi fan sacrificio a te, cantando osanna, così facciamo li uomini de' suoi.
La Divina comedia, Purgatorio, Canto XI, 1-12

Our Father, thou who dwellest in the heavens,
Not circumscribed, but from the greater love
Thou bearest to the first effects on high,
Praised be thy name and thine omnipotence
By every creature, as befitting is
To render thanks to thy sweet effluence.
Come unto us the peace of thy dominion,
For unto it we cannot of ourselves,
If it come not, with all our intellect.
Even as thine own Angels of their will Make sacrifice to thee, Hosanna singing,
So may all men make sacrifice of theirs
Divine Comedy, Purgatory, Canto XI, 1-12

Michał Malec
(short biography)

Michał Malec was born in 1995 in Lublin. A graduate of the MA studies in the field of composition in the class of Prof. Paweł Łukaszewski. He was improving his knowledge of composition at the University of Aberdeen under the supervision of Prof. Paul Mealor. He is a member of the Youth Circle of the Polish Composers' Union and works at his alma mater as an assistant at the Department of Composition and Theory of Music.

Despite his young age, he has already won numerous awards, e.g. the 1st prize (in 2019) and 3rd prize (2016) in the International Composers' Competition 'Musica Sacra Nova' in Cologne, 1st prize in the International Composers' Competition 'In modo di Lutosławski' in Warsaw (2013), 2nd prize in the JP2 Composers' Competition (2018), 3rd prize in the International Composers' Competition 'Musica Sacra' in Cz stochowa (2012) as well as an honourable mention in the Tadeusz Baird Competition for Young Composers (2016). He is a laureate of the Młoda Polska [Young Poland] scholarship awarded by the Minister of Culture and National Heritage.

Michał Malec's creative output includes both vocal (especially choral) and instrumental pieces (chamber, symphonic); he also creates vocal and instrumental works. His compositions have been performed all over Poland (e.g. Warsaw, Cracow, Kato-wice, Wrocław, Cz stochowa, Białystok, Gdańsk, Bydgoszcz, or Lublin) as well as abroad (Lithuania, Germany, Great Britain, Norway, Estonia, Spain, Portugal, and Israel).

Malec's compositions have been performed by such ensembles as the Chopin University of Music Symphony Orchestra, the Polish-Norwegian Youth Symphony Orchestra, the Unplugged Orchestra as well as by the Lithuanian choir 'Jauna Muzika,' Europäischer Kammerchor Köln, the Katowice City Singers' Ensemble 'Camerata Silesia,' the National Forum of Music Choir in Wrocław, the Polish National Youth Choir, the Vocore Vocal Ensemble, the Art'n'Voices Vocal Ensemble, or the proMODERN Sextet.

Michał Malec's works have been published by the German publishing house Schott Music and by the PWM Edition; moreover, his music has been recorded on several CDs, three of which have been nominated for the 'Fryderyk' award in the category 'Album of the Year – Contemporary Music' (in 2019, 2020, and 2021).
